DICTIONARY

SAMUEL HUERTAS

To compare you to the sky
Is quite a bit of an understatement.
It'd be better to say
That you're like the fire in a candle:
Warm, soothing,
Giving light on lonely nights.

Or maybe more like a tree:
Dancing in the wind,
Firm and unmoving.
Wait...

Maybe you're like a lake.
I could dive into
The dark depths
And the sunny shallows
And swim in the warm summer breeze
Becoming one with you.

You are like the morning star.
You're the first thing I see in the morning.
Shining bright
And giving way to my day.
